Subcommittee on Solicitation Laws of the Standing Committee on Justice, Human Rights, Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness

Monday, October 24, 2005

• (1745)

[English]

The Clerk of the Committee: Honourable members of the subcommittee, I see that we have a quorum.

We can now proceed with the election of the chair for the subcommittee, so I'm taking nominations.

Dr. Fry.

Hon. Hedy Fry (Vancouver Centre, Lib.): I would like to move John Maloney to be chair, in absentia.

The Clerk: There is one motion on the table.

(Motion agreed to)

The Clerk: Now I will take nominations for a vice-chair.

Hon. Hedy Fry: I would like to nominate Libby Davies as vice-chair.

The Clerk: Okay.

(Motion agreed to)

The Clerk: In lieu of the fact that Mr. Maloney is absent for the time being, I will call on Ms. Davies to take the chair of the committee.

So I'll turn it over to her.

The Vice-Chair (Ms. Libby Davies (Vancouver East, NDP)): Thank you, members.

In the absence of our chair, Mr. Maloney, I'll continue with the meeting, but we're just going to suspend for a moment—because we're in public right now—so we can go back in camera to continue with our business or determine how we want to continue with our business.

Is that acceptable to people?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

[Proceedings continue in camera]
