Responses

1. Economic Recovery and Growth

Given the current climate of federal and global fiscal restraint, what specific federal measures do you feel are needed for a sustained economic recovery and enhanced economic growth in Canada?

Raise corporate taxes to the level they were before 2006.

2. Job Creation

As Canadian companies face pressures resulting from such factors as uncertainty about the U.S. economic recovery, a sovereign debt crisis in Europe, and competition from a number of developed and developing countries, what specific federal actions do you believe should be taken to promote job creation in Canada, including that which occurs as a result of enhanced internal and international trade?

Create an alternative energy industry.

3. Demographic Change

What specific federal measures do you think should be implemented to help the country address the consequences of, and challenges associated with, the aging of the Canadian population and of skills shortages?

Allow for greater numbers of immigrants and refugees into the country. Reinststate the IFHP for the refugees.

4. Productivity

With labour market challenges arising in part as a result of the aging of Canada's population and an ongoing focus on the actions needed for competitiveness, what specific federal initiatives are needed in order to increase productivity in Canada?

Alternative energy initiatives.

5. Other Challenges

With some Canadian individuals, businesses and communities facing particular challenges at this time, in your view, who is facing the most challenges, what are the challenges that are being faced and what specific federal actions are needed to address these challenges?

Refugees to this country are facing the challenge of losing their interim health care funding. Bring back the IFHP. Women are facing the challenge of having their right to choose taken away by this repressive and misogynist, fraudulently "elected" government. Canadians are losing the right to vote. Stop using taxpayer's money to spread your web of deceit by adopting US republican-style advertisements. Quit giving corporations the power to run this country. Begin to support alternative energy initiatives. Start to tax corporations at the rate of 18%.
