Responses

1. Economic Recovery and Growth

Given the current climate of federal and global fiscal restraint, what specific federal measures do you feel are needed for a sustained economic recovery and enhanced economic growth in Canada?

nationalize the commanding heights of the economy in the hands of the people! the fruit of society's labours should not go to the hands of a few men and women!

2. Job Creation

As Canadian companies face pressures resulting from such factors as uncertainty about the U.S. economic recovery, a sovereign debt crisis in Europe, and competition from a number of developed and developing countries, what specific federal actions do you believe should be taken to promote job creation in Canada, including that which occurs as a result of enhanced internal and international trade?

a massive public works program to increase our infrastructure

3. Demographic Change

What specific federal measures do you think should be implemented to help the country address the consequences of, and challenges associated with, the aging of the Canadian population and of skills shortages?

training and education for youths! this is how society is supposed to work! the youth step in to replace the old! free education is easily attainable - the bonuses (not salaries, not options packages, not private investment portfolios, JUST BONUSES) of the highest executives well exceed conservative estimates on the cost of free national postsecondary education for all

4. Productivity

With labour market challenges arising in part as a result of the aging of Canada's population and an ongoing focus on the actions needed for competitiveness, what specific federal initiatives are needed in order to increase productivity in Canada?

people work productively when they actually see the fruit of their labour. put an end to the appropriation of the SOCIALLY CREATED profits by private individuals

5. Other Challenges

With some Canadian individuals, businesses and communities facing particular challenges at this time, in your view, who is facing the most challenges, what are the challenges that are being faced and what specific federal actions are needed to address these challenges?

the greatest challenge is to all of society. it's a matter of how we meet this challenge and who will pay for the capitalist crisis - the masses of working people or the bosses and elites. The answer is obvious.
